

Treasurer E. W. Hyde of the Bath Iron works, who in company with Mr. Baxter of Portland, has been deer hunting in the northern part of the State the past ten days, returned home this afternoon, bringing with him a handsome caribou, the head of which will soon adorn the spacious dining hall at Elmhurst.